Fourth CIS Local Counsel Forum
June 24-26, 2009; Kiev, Ukraine

Fourth CIS Local Counsel Forum

We are pleased to announce that the fourth CIS Local Counsel Forum will take place in Kiev, Ukraine on 24-26 June 2009 at the exquisite Opera Hotel, hosted by RULG-Ukrainian Legal Group. Registration is now open at <http://rulg.com/cisforum/index2.asp>

The inaugural CIS Local Counsel Forum was held in Kiev in June 2006, hosted by RULG-Ukrainian Legal Group, and was the first ever wide-scale meeting of the international legal community with the best Local Counsel law firms from the CIS economic region (Armenia, Azerbaijan, Belarus, Georgia, Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Moldova, Russia, Tajikistan, Turkmenistan, Ukraine, and Uzbekistan). Since then, the CIS Forum has evolved into an informal network of managing and senior partners of CIS and international law firms, meeting annually in different venues chosen by the Delegates. The second Forum was successfully held in Baku in 2007, hosted by the prominent Azeri law firm Fina LLP. The third Forum was hosted by the leading Russian law firm of Egorov Puginsky Afanasiev & Partners in June 2008 in St. Petersburg, and was the largest and most spectacular Forum so far.

The Forum meetings bring together leading business lawyers from the CIS economic region and from around the world, with an approximately equal split between representatives of the international legal community and of the CIS legal community. The Delegates share the Mission of the Forum – "Bringing together the CIS and international legal communities with the aim of creating joint business opportunities and long-term cooperation". This Mission reflects the 21st century reality, in which global investors view the CIS countries as a broad and dynamic economic region with intertwined business connections and comparable legal systems. The motto of the Forum is "Know Your Local Counsel – Recognize an Opportunity".

The Forum allows the Delegates to share, in an open and friendly spirit, the latest legal and economic news from their jurisdictions, and to establish important business contacts. The Forum meetings in Kiev, Baku and St Petersburg demonstrated the huge demand among CIS law firms for on-going communication and business cooperation, as well as the international legal community's serious interest in the CIS region. Although the economic crisis has affected the CIS region as much as the rest of the world, we have to withstand the crisis as a community – our best efforts will be rewarded with new contacts, ideas, projects and alliances, just as at all previous Forums.

The Forum's success is explained by the outstanding value it gives to the Delegates, in equal measures for both law firms and corporate counsel. Corporate counsel, representing major CIS and multinational companies, have a separate panel at the Forum, and their participation became possible to a large extent due to the kind support of the Russian Corporate Counsel Association and its President, Ms. Alexandra Nesterenko.

The Forum's website <http://www.rulg.com/cisforum> provides you with detailed information about the Forum, its Mission and Concept, a valuable database of the best CIS Local Counsel Firms (CIS Local Counsel Questionnaires), media coverage and comments from the Delegates, as well as comprehensive information about every Forum, including the Programs, Lists of Delegates and Guests, Bios and Presentations of Moderators and Panelists and wonderful pictures, which reflect the open and exciting spirit of the Forum.

The draft Program of the fourth Forum is already posted at http://www.rulg.com/cisforum/ forum_program.asp and other information will be posted as preparations progress. We look forward to seeing you in Kiev!
